Application for Employment

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for considering a position with King County, a government dedicated to serving the people of King County, Washington.

Please fill out the entire application. Providing complete and accurate information on your education, work experience, and skills will help identify whether you are a qualified candidate for the position.

King County is an equal employment opportunity employer. Applicants are considered for positions without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, age, marital or veteran status, disability, sexual orientation (including gender identity), or any other basis prohibited by federal, state, and local laws.

If you need an accommodation in the application or testing process, please indicate this on the Applicant Data Sheet page. King County fully supports the Americans With Disabilities Act and will provide reasonable accommodation.

Instructions

1. Submit a separate application for each job opening. Applications are accepted only for open positions.
2. Type or print legibly in ink.
3. Include the job title and announcement number on the application. If you are applying for more than one position, please note the correct job announcement number on each application.
4. Answer all questions. If a question is not applicable, enter "N/A". An incomplete application may delay action or disqualify you. All information you provide is subject to verification.
5. Return all required materials indicated on the job announcement.
6. Submit a copy of your DD-214 with your application if you are claiming Veteran's Preference.
7. Date and sign the application. If not signed, the application will not be complete. (Note: If submitting the application electronically, an electronic signature or typed name will substitute for a written signature.)
8. An incomplete application may disqualify you from being considered for the position.
9. Send your completed application packet to the address listed on the job announcement. Applications sent to the wrong address may not be processed.
10. Your application must be received by the date and time indicated on the job announcement.
11. Applications and supporting material will not be returned.
12. Allow a minimum of four to six weeks after the announced closing date for a reply to your application. If you have a question about the job, contact the person or office listed on the announcement.
